

Supreme Court of New Jersey
Single-Justice Disposition on Application for Emergent Relief (Rule 2:9-8)

Case title: Mirza M. Bulur, et al. v. The New Jersey Office of the Attorney General, et al.

Supreme Court docket number: 090126 (S-37-24)

Appellate Division
docket number (if available): A-629-23/A-1209-23

Applicant's name: Defendants New Jersey Office of the Attorney General, et al.

- ☐ 1. The matter is remanded to the APPELLATE DIVISION to permit the applicant to file an emergent motion to be scheduled as provided by the Appellate Division. The matter is emergent because a definitive event will occur or specific action is required on a date prior to the date on which a motion in ordinary course can be considered by the Appellate Division. In addition, the request for a temporary stay/other relief pending the Appellate Division's disposition of the emergent motion is:
- ☐ DENIED without prejudice to the Appellate Division entertaining a request for such relief.
- ☐ GRANTED as specified in section 3 below. The Appellate Division may vacate such relief if the applicant fails to timely comply with all instructions provided by the Appellate Division. Jurisdiction is not retained by the Supreme Court unless otherwise stated below.
- ☒ 2. Permission to file an emergent motion in the SUPREME COURT is granted as follows:
- A. The moving party shall serve and file a notice of motion together with copies of the Appellate Division order and the brief relied upon in support of the motion, and all required fees or an application for leave to proceed as an indigent, in accordance with instructions provided by the clerk's office.
- B. Opposing parties may serve and file papers in accordance with instructions of the clerk's office.
- C. No additional briefs or documents are permitted unless requested by the Court.
- D. Pending the Court's disposition of the emergent motion, a temporary stay/other relief is:
- ☐ DENIED.
- ☒ GRANTED as specified in section 3 below.
- ☒ 3. Temporary stay/other relief, if any: The Appellate Division's opinion is temporarily stayed pending further order of the Court.
- ☒ 4. Other instructions:
- Defendants shall serve and file a petition for certification by December 31, 2024. Plaintiffs shall serve and file a response by January 10, 2025. Defendants may serve and file a reply, if any, by January 14, 2025.
- Defendants shall serve and file a stay motion and supporting brief by December 31, 2024. If plaintiffs choose to submit an additional answer, it shall be served and filed by January 10, 2025. The Court already is in receipt of plaintiffs' brief submitted on December 19, 2024.
